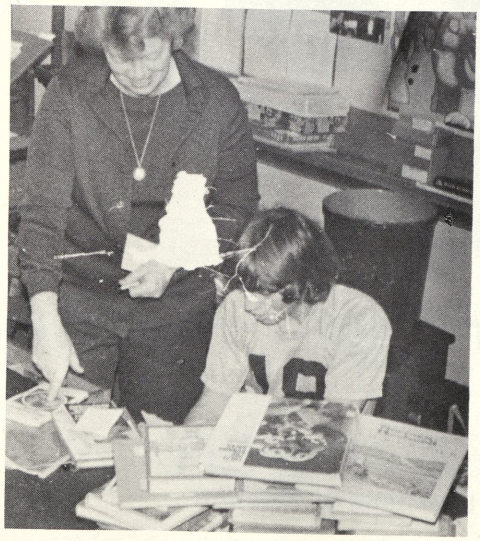
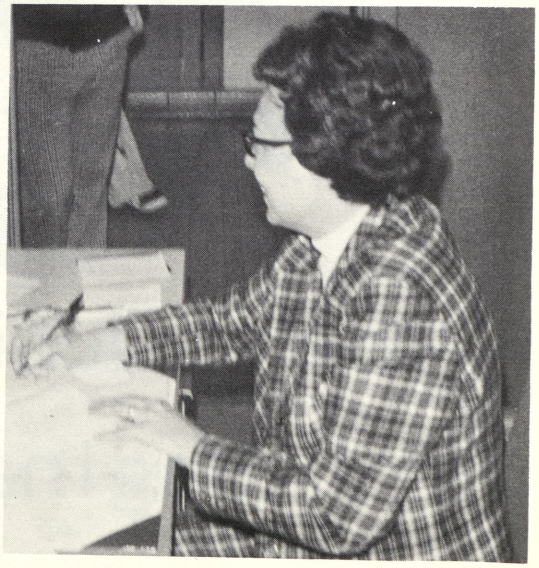
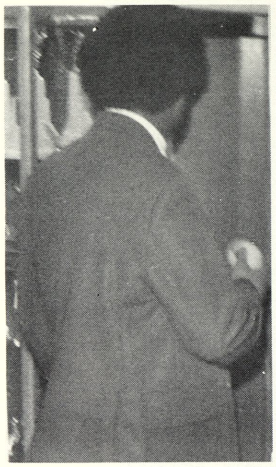
SAGINAW, MI 48607

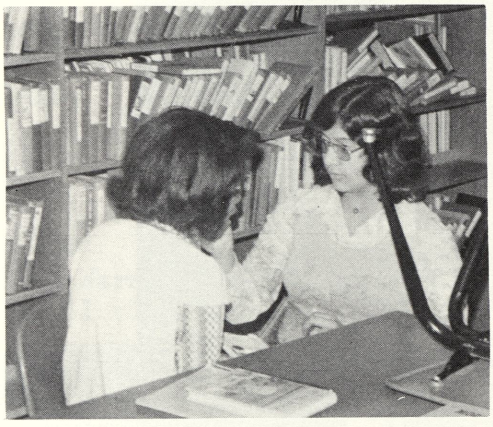
The year is 1976, a year commemorating 200 years of American tradition and spirit. In presenting you with this yearbook, we hope to commemorate the year at Webber Jr. High School and thus contribute to the Bi-centennial spirit, the spirit of '76.

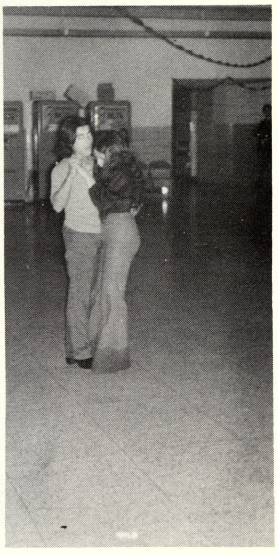
The Yearbook Staff

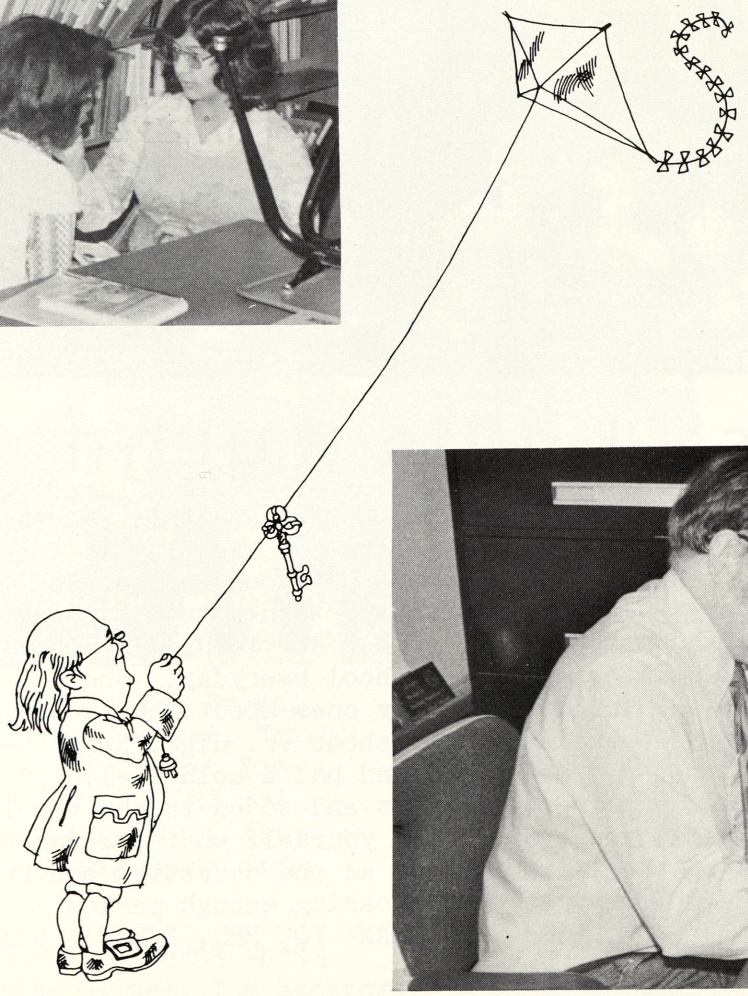


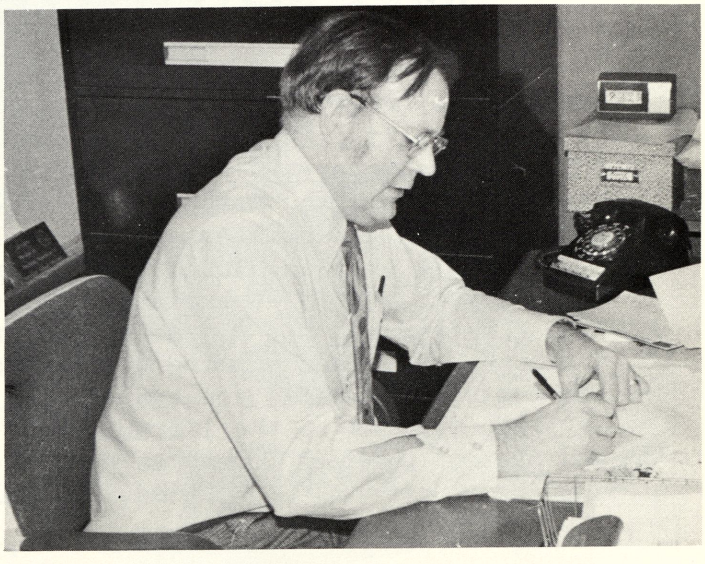












In Dedication

Mrs. Phyllis Kuehn

This bicentennial year, we wish to dedicate this year's "special edition yearbook" to a very special person. Mrs. Phylis Kuehn. Hardly anyone realizes how much Mrs. Kuehn has done for us, and is still doing. Our library is what it is today, thanks to her. Other schools have been lucky enough to partake of her services. In 1969-1971, she traveled to a different elementary school everyday. She told stories to the young ones and taught the older ones about the library. 1971 was the year she was transferred to Webber Jr. High. Here she created a "warm" library. "It was so empty, and had a cold feeling," says Mrs. Kuehn. So she began putting up posters and added to the booklist many new books, and, well, you can see for yourself what she has done. Everything that is in the library, such as the cassettes and projectors and magazines, Mrs. Kuehn has been a caring enough person to provide. We feel she should be noticed. THANK YOU MRS. KUEHN! Good luck to you in the future.

Special Salute

MR. WILLIAM BECHER

Mr. William Becher has been a tremendous addition to the Webber Jr. High staff. He has been here for eight years, and every year is worth it. Even though we may joke about "$Mr. Money$" he has done a spectacular job with our Honor Society. He is a very organized person. Being able to make communications with the outside world, the business world, seems rather difficult, but for William Becher, it's a cinch! When the Honor Society has sales of different sorts, Mr. Becher does all the planning of when he'll get the goods and when to pick them up. He has good ideas and is a good leader. Thank you, Mr. Becher.
